38
B

*639.3
E12.12
#2

PROPERTY OF

Edgartown, Massachusetts

Except the frost-interesting logs on road. F. S. P.

These later rubbers seemed to have a different origin from those on the old log stable. This log seems rubbing right off S. Windcant Western sprouts of Quercus alba whence the log started out from New Bedford way.

95-) 1895-

April 20th running down the N.E. Trade Winds

(95-April 20th 1895-
" " "

Sat April 20th M" M.H. up and woreship at 25-6 A" broke out the A hole for a cask of beef A" saw a barque heading to the North M.H. down and woreship at 6-25 on P tack all day weather fine and clear with a Mord breeze from the N.E. 7 o'clock E" Laying S tack fine weather ~~no sight today~~

Lat 13-48 Lon 41-20½

Sun April 21st M" M.H up at 20-6 nothing doing today on S tack all P noon A" woreship on P tack M.H. head down and woreship at 6-30 weather cloudy with a fair breeze from the N.E. saw a barque heading to the North 7 o'clock E" Laying S tack

Lat 14-00 Lon 42-07

Mon April 22d M" M.H. up and woreship at 20-6 A" the Mate coopered a flour cask M.H. down and woreship at 6-30 weather clody the biggest part of today with a fair breeze from the N.E. quite rough 7 o'clock E" Laying S tack

Lat 13-40 Lon 42-18½

Tues April 23d M" M.H. up and woreship at 20-6 nothing doing today A" M.H. down and woreship at 6-25 weather cloudy with a fair breeze from the N.E. 7 o'clock E" Laying S tack

Lat 13-34

Wed April 24th M" M.H. up and woreship at 25-6 nothing doing today on P tack all day A" M.H. down and woreship at 6-25 weather cloudy with a strong breeze from the N.E. rough 7 o'clock E" Laying S tack rough cloudy

~~Thurs April~~ Lat 13-28

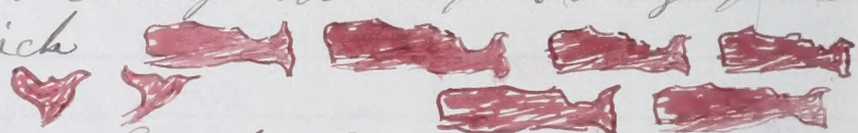
Thurs April 25th M" M.H. up and woreship at 20-6 nothing doing today A" M.H down and woreship at 6-25 caught a number of Dolphin's this A" weather today clear with a fair breeze from the N.E. quite rough 7 o'clock E" laying S tack

Lat 13-25 Lon 44-44

96 April 26th 1895 — Cruising in the Trade Winds — April 26th 96 1895

Fri April 26th M" M. H. up and wore ship at 20-6 nothing doing today on P tack all day A" sighted sighted a sail some says it is a Sch and some says it's a barque its a whaler cannot speak speak her today Long ways off 7 o'clock E" Laying P tack

Sat April 27th M. H. and wore ship at 20-6 saw the Brigg D. A. Small of Provincetown and raised a School of whales at 25-7 Lowerd 3 boats at 75-7 and got 8 whales Last 2 saved 6 - got aboard at 2-15 in the A" cut one whale in 7 o'clock E" Laying S tack with 5 whales alongside weather cloudy with a fair breeze from the NE. brown bir sick



Lat 12-55 Lon 41-26

Sun April 28th turned too at 5-30 and started to cut in all through cutting at 2-30 and started the the works workin at 4 o'clock 7 o'clock E" on S tack boiling and randing P watch on deck weather cloud with rain squalls wind NE. D. A. Small out sight all day Laying under two trysails and 3 jibs

Mon April 29th M" boiling all last night this morning got through cutting the heads on deck all through randing boiling all day saw a barque weather clear with a strong breeze from the NE. rough 7 o'clock E" Laying S tack P watch on deck saw whales alongside at 10 o'clock M" coop raised them

Tues April 30th M" squally all last night boiling and stowing down boiling all day and stowed down some all throug with the blubber at 6 o'clock E" case on deck weather cloudy and squally squally all day rough with a strong breez from the NE. big sea running 7 o'clock E" Laying P tack P watch on deck working the case and sink rough

Cruising in the NE. Trade Winds

Wed May 1st all throug boiling at 4 oclock squally all last night "A" stowing down all through at 5 oclock decks all cleard weather cloud rough and squally with rain worship at 6 oclock 7 oclock "E" Laying P tack rough big sea runing wind NE.

Thurs May 2d W. H. up at 10-6 squally all last night with rain washed off deck with Leye all throug at noon rains heavy this PM noon "A" W. H. down at 6-20 weather rough cloudy and squally with rain showers big sea runing on P tack all day 7 oclock "E" Laying P tack weather looks bad wind NE.

Fri May 3d " W. H. up at 15-6 on P tack "A" nothing doing today W. H. down and worship at 6-30 saw a sail at 6 oclock "A" weather cloudy rough and windy with a big sea runing wind NE. squally all day with rain showers 7 oclock "E" Laying S-tack rough

Lat 13-35 Lon 42-50

Sat May 4th W. H. up at 15-6. "A" nothing doing today on P tack all day weather cloudy rough and windy with a big sea runing wind NE. strong breez parted the PORT F jib boom guys 7 oclock "E" Laying P tack rough looks squally strong breeze from the NE.

Lat 13-25 Lon 42-24½

Sun May 5th W. H. up and worship at 15-6 set up the F jib boom guy "A" nothing doing today W. H. down at 6-20 weather cloudy with a strong breeze from the NE. rough big sea running on S-tack all day 7 oclock "E" Laying S-tack rough

Lat 13-05 Lon 42-02 3/4

98 / 1895 May 6th " Cruising in the N.E. Trade Winds May 6th " 98 1895

Mon May 6th W^r" M.H. up and worship at 20-6 on P tack A" put two patches on M trysail new foot Lacing on F sail M.H. down at 6-15 weather cloudy and squally with a few rain showers rough big sea Wind N.E 7 o'clock E" Laying P tack

Lat 13=12 Lon 41=5-9 1/2

Tues May 7th W^r" M.H. and worship at 5-20 sighted the Brigg D.A. Small and Adelica Chase gamed the ~~brig~~ two Vessells all day got our F- jib and Letters and some papers from the brigg 6-30 E" M.H. down and worship weather fine and clear with a Mard breeze from the N.E. 7 o'clock E" Laying S. tack both vessells in sight weather squally with rain showers

Wed May 8th W^r" M.H. at 6-20 worship at 3 o'clock this W^r" on P tack the Chase and Small in sight. A" saw white water at 1-30 Jule saw a breach at 10-5 the Capt of the Chase came aboard awhile this A" M.H. down and worship at 6-20 on S tack only one vessell in sight the Chase weather fine and clear with a Mard breeze from the East 7 o'clock E" Laying S tack Chase in sight

Thurs May 9th W^r" worship at 3 o'clock on P tack M.H. up at 5-30 put the F jib in a Cask nothing more doing M.H. down and worship 6-20 weather fine but cloudy with a Mard breeze from the N.E. 7 o'clock E" Laying S tack the Small and Chase in sight all day

99) 7 May 6 cruising in the N.E. May (94 1595) 10 ft) Trade winds (1st Yr. 1595

Lat 12-50 Lon 41-42

Thurs 7 May 10 ft" moreship at 3 o'clock on P Watch M.H. up at 5-30 Jack saw white water at 11 30 a school of whales lowered 3 boats at 12-15 all got fast the Mate got fast twice cut once and iron broke once S Mate got fast and Lost 2 tubs of line P- Mate got fast once saved him got aboard at 4 20 in the A" put up the cutting gear and started to cut in all through cutting and whale on deck at 6 o'clock weather cloudy with a fair breeze from the N.E. Adlia 6 have keep off to the Southd under P.T. sail 4 miles out of sight 7 o'clock E" Laying on D tack, standing Northerd Laying under two jibs Trisail and M Trysail equally

Sat May 11 th M" toiling all day standing to Southerd last night weather fine and clear with a Mord breze from the N.E. at P Watch 7 o'clock E" B- watch on deck

Sun 7 May 12 th all through toiling at 3 o'clock in the M" A" cleaning up decks weather cloudy with a fair breze from the N.E. 7 o'clock E" Laying 2 tacks upon all the oil on deck

Mon May 13 th M" raised a school of whales from deck Lowered 3 boats at 10 6 got 4 whales got aboard at 4 o'clock stowing down oil of last whale started to cut in at 1 30 all through cutting at 15-6 weather fine with a fair breeze from the N.E. cloudy 7-30 E" P Watch on deck toiling fine weather

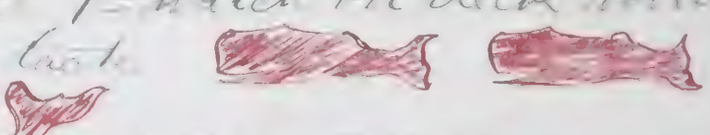
(Wednesday) May 14th 1845

Wednesday May 14th 1845

Pleasant Winds

Wednesday May 14th boiling and rendering blubber Last night all through rendered at 11-15 Clock a strong breeze from the N.E. all last night Middle & head boiling all day in Port weather fair & the wind veers from the N.E. to N.W. down and moreships at 5-30 o'clock Commenced pumping 25 casks Fresh water on deck boiling fine weather

Thursday May 15th Middle through boiling at 3-30 in the Morn Middle up and rigged a whale off whales at 15 & Lucas 3 casks at 6 Clock got 2 whales the Male got first twice last we dined and cleared the others on 5 Whales got me 25 — Casts nothing got aboard at 12 a clock noon and started to cut in at 1 o'clock all throng rolling at 20-8 and started the works and cleaning down all weather fine and clear with a Mild breeze from the N.E. water set at 5 o'clock in the Commenced Fresh water on deck boiling and working on 25 casts



Friday May 16th Middle up at 6 o'clock boiling rendered up the 2 heads boiling all day Middle through boiling at 6 o'clock Commenced cleaning up all today moreships at 7 o'clock Commenced weather fine and clear with a Mild breeze from the N.E. 7 o'clock Commenced Laying 25 casts

Saturday May 17th Middle and started to the Ships heads up and cleaning all day all through at 5 o'clock in the Middle all aboard weather fine and clear with a fair breeze from the N.E. in Port all day some a mile to the East and more

101 May 1895 Cruising in the N.E. Trades 101 May 1895

Sat May 18 th 7 11" A.M. up and hauled off with Dyer all hands at 12 in the noon nothing more doing today weather fine and clear with a Mod breeze from the N.E. quite rough on D ck at all day 7 o'clock E" saying D tack ran a Sail a fine main deck ship

Sun May 19 th 11" A.M. up on Deck nothing doing A.M. down and noon ship at 25-7 o'clock E" saying D tack weather fine and clear with a Mod breeze from the N.E. kept off on 11" running & the Lizard a barque passed across our bow close to

Lat 42 = 35 Lon 41 5-8

Mon May 20 th 11" A.M. up setting the Mizen sail and put a reef in one pink tack nothing more doing A.M. down at 25 7 o'clock E" saying D tack weather fine and clear with a Mod breeze from the N.E.

Lat 42 = 12 Lon 42 = 39

Tues May 21 st A.M. up and set 3 lower sails at 20 saw a brig heading to the South scraped and hauled down the Main & the Mate made some buoys 11" A.M. down and took in sail at 6 25 on D tack all day weather fine and clear with a Mod breeze from the N.E. running all day heading N.N. 7 o'clock E" saying D tack fine weather

Wed May 22 d A.M. up and kept off running all day on D tack fine weather all day clear with a Mod breeze from the N.E. 7 o'clock E" saying D tack

Lat 13 = 45 Lon 44 15

102) 25th running down the Trade (May 23d 102 winds bound for Barbadoes (1895 West Indies
Thurs May 23d AM. H. up and wash'd at 5=30 set AM sail and P.M sail running all day on P Tack with a good breeze from the N E. weather clear and fine running all day with 3 Lower sails and AM-t-gs'l and Jib at 6 "fine weather running good breeze

Lat 13 48 Lon 11 45 = 14 1/2

Fri May 24th AM "running all Last night with a good breeze AM. H. up at 20 6 scraped and painted the trys'l and cooler nothing more doing good breeze all day from the N E on P Tack weather clear good breeze from N E.

Lat 12 20 Lon 47 = 07 1/2,

Sat May 25th running all Last night with a good breeze from the N E. AM. H. up at 5 30 nothing to day the Mate made some brown "A" tacked ship at 6 o'clock o'clock 6 on P-tack running fine weather clear Mod breeze

Lat 10=30 Lon 49=02 1/2

Sun May 26 AM PM. H. up at 20-6 nothing doing to day on P tack all day running weather fine clear with a fair breeze from the N E.

Lat 10=45= Lon 51=34.

Mon May 27 to running all Last night equally with wind and rain on P-tack all night running all day with a strong breeze from the N E. big sea running equally

Lat 12=30 Lon 54=33

On Port Barbadoes West Indies
May 29th 1891

Wed May 28th running all last night squally with rain and wind on S. back running all day on S. tack the Bermuda true bore bir H. running winged out H" took in M sail and set try sail weather cloudy and squally with rain and wind on S tack big sea running strong breze from the N.E. 7 o'clock E running S tack

Lat 13 - 15 Lon 57 - 29

Thurs May 29th M running all last night squally with wind and rain and a light at 12 SE. supposed of Barbados H. H. got in Port at 15-11 forenoon took down the Bermuda put up a new H" S Watch ashore fine weather

Fri May 30th in Port nothing doing A" S. watch aboard S watch ashore fine weather Helena Chase discharging coal

Sat May 31st nothing doing this day S watch aboard fine weather all hands aboard of in Port

Sun June 1st nothing doing this P.M. H got under way and left Barbados bound for Dominica at 3 o'clock in the H fine weather good breze from the N.E. fine weather

Mon June 2nd M A.M. Hands watch at 5-30 Dog Dominica at 11-30 in the H fine weather Morne Light bore from the N.E. by E. the Sail and rest on the all the night, more time tides

1892 May 31 1892 H. M. P. Dominica Port Antonio

Mon June 3d 1892 "Received all last night and today's of Dominica 7-30 P.M." droped anchor in Prince Rubuts Bay Dominica had 3 boats towing the Vessell fine weather

Tues June 4th in Port Coaling ship and taking down the rigging fine weather

Wed June 5th in Port Coaling water all day and one Load of wood about all through with water weather raining about all day done a little tracking today

Thurs June 6th filling water all day all through filling water weather fine with a few rain showers

Fri June 7th painting ship fine weather No rain

June 8th Sat painting ship inside fine weather no rain

Sun June 9th nothing doing about all hands ashore fine weather no rain

Mon June 10th painting ship inside fine weather no rain

Tues June 11th nothing doing fine weather no rain

Wed June 12th 7H" turned too and got 103 in Port Marie galante B. I.

1895 June 13th Thurs June 13 th 1895 — Bound to Boc underway at 8 o'clock in the "H" "H" dispatched another to the opp Marie galante to take down the sail and mended it — Capt and wife went ashore while fine weather all day —

Thurs June 13th got underway at 5-30 this "H" From Marie galante bound out to sea "H" stood down chains in the A hole the Mate struck a large porpoise saved him nothing much doing today weather fine and clear with a fair breeze from the N E. saw a barque running to the westward —

Fri June 14 th "H" running all last night nothing doing today on B tack saw the ship bound in to the A H. weather fine clear with a strong breeze from the eastward quite rough took in "H" sail at sunset set the sail "H" up today

Sat June 15 th nothing doing today running all last night B tack weather fine smokey good breeze quite rough "H" H. up today 8 o'clock "C" on B tack

Sun June 16 th nothing doing today saw a sail bound to the westward weather fine and clear with a little air

Lat 21-50 Lon 59-19

Mon June 17 "H" unbent the "H" sail and Painted the boom and gaff fixing the "H" sail weather fine and clear with a little air

Tues June 18 "H" painted the boom and gaff the second coat and fixing up the "H" sail saw a square rigged bound to the westward

June 19th Bound to the Eastern (illegible)
" " Ground

weather fine and clear with a little air almost calm on S. tack)

Wed June 19 th M" pring the K. boat and painted the Same on the Knight heads weather calm the Last 24 hours calm and clear saw gramp

Thurs June 20th M" nothing doing today weather calm and clear calm all last night and today saw Comfits Fri June 21st M" broke out the Hole for the New Mast to fix it sent on the Mast and pit the K. boat the rig on the Steamer saw a Steamer weather fine with a few rain showers through the day a little breze from the Eastward on S— tack with everything set M.H. up

Sat June 22d doing the Mast all Thursy with the Mast at 3 clock in the A" saw a Schr but Master bound in to the South weather fine and clear with a Moderate breze from the Eastward on S. tack everything set M.H. up

Sun June 23d mining all last night and last saw gramps Last night at 12 at the A" hole for water nothing more doing today weather fine with a fine breze on S tack wind from S.W. at 11 M and at 4 clock in the A" set Top sail Jib & C" Kapping Sylvia at anchor watches S. Watch on deck (Sunday)

105 June 24th 1895 Western ground

Mon June 24th 1895 Lat 36-15 Lon 56-36

Mon June 24th 1895 "put on a few rattlins and give the B-bort some tow line nothing doing weather cloudy with rain squalls all day B Mate raised W. water at 2-25 it was nothing to speak of up on B-tack all day took in sail at Sun Set Tues June 25th 1895 "put 4 mm cleats on the boom saddle A" saw grampus breaching at 1-15 nothing doing today weather fine and clear with a Mod breeze from the Southard on B-tack all day 111 ft up took in sail at 15-7 C"

Wed June 26th 1895 "took up spare sails to dry made two spade poles weather fine and clear with a Mod breeze from the South on B-tack all day heading NE 111 ft up

Lat 36-50 Lon 54-42

Thurs June 27th 1895 "set all sail and fired the Vessels pumps nothing more doing A" took in sail at B-set 7 o'clock C" Laying to tack under two Fry sails and 2-J staysail weather fine and clear with a fair breeze from the South

Lat 37-40 Lon 54-18 3/4

Fri June 28th 1895 "set full sail A" sighted raised 3 white water at 1-20 nothing doing today took in sail at B-set on B-tack all day weather fine and clear with a Strong breeze from the SW running all day on B-tack 7 o'clock C" Laying B tack caught a lot of fish today

Lat 33-35 Lon 54-02

Sat June 29th 1895 "overhip and set 3 lower sails A" sighted a school of whales at 4-15 lowered boats Le-bort went on first 1161 June 30th Western (Homeward) June 106 30th 895-1875) " " attack whale spouting. Saw two boats get a whale went to windward fast back came aboard at 8-30 11-5 no whale took in sail keeping S back weather fine and clear with a good breeze from the Wes quite rough through the day

Sun June 30th All" set 3 lower sails on P tack all day 11" S-Male raised 1 spout and two Minute at 1-15 nothing in sight fine and clear with a fair breeze from the SW. Sun set took in sail and wore ship Took to E" keeping S-tack fine weather fine the S-boat sent a plank in the bottom Lat 33-30 Lon 54-14

Mon July 1st All" set all sail 3 lowers nothing doing today on P tack all day weather fine and clear with a fair breeze from the SW. took in sail at Sun set and wore ship Took to E" keeping S-tack fine weather
Lat 33-33 Lon 54-18 3/4

Tues July 2nd All" set 3 Lower sails on P tack all day nothing doing weather fine and clear with a fair breeze from the SW. took in sail and wore ship at S-set Took to E" keeping S-tack
Lat 34-00 Lon 54-01 1/2

Wed July 3d " All" the Male raised whales at 10-5 Lowered 3 boats at 15 6 whales going to windward past no Chance boats came aboard at 15-9 no whales All" wore ship at 12-30 noon on P tack with 3 Lower sails and topsail took in sail and wore ship at S-set Took to E" keeping P tack no whales

~~Thurs~~ July 4th on P tack all day nothing doing A" saw 3 white water's at 2 o'clock saw grampus at D-set weather fine and clear calm all day

Fri ~~Thurs~~ July 5th "H" saw porpoise and grampus nothing doing fine weather calm all day 7 o'clock E" Laying P tack
Lat 33 = 40 Lon 53 = 43 3/4

Sat ~~Fri~~ July 6th "H" the Mate raised whale at 5 o'clock in the "H" Lowered boats at 6-15 Mate got one Large whale A" started to cut in cut in the junk knocked off at 6-20 nothing doing saw a sail a barque weather fine and clear with a Mod breeze from the Eastward 7 o'clock E" Laying D-tack

Lat 33 = 24 Lon 53 = 08

Sun July 7th "H" lowed to and started to cut in at through at 15-3 everything aboard but some blubber in the hold started the works at 5 o'clock saw two large sharps and one Stm weather fine and clear with a Mod breeze from the East 6 o'clock E" Laying D-tack boiling D-watch on deck

Mon. July 8th boiling all Last night stowing down all saw all today boiling all day weather fine calm and clear on D-tack 7 o'clock E" D-watch on deck boiling

Tues July 9th boiling all last night fine weather all night Lowing down and boiling all day weather fine clear and calm on S-tacks 6 o'clock to 6"-8 watch on deck boiling fine weather

Wed July 10th Boiling all last night fine weather III. H. up boiling and blowing down all reading up the yards all throughout boiling at 6 o'clock in the 6" saw gramps

Thurs July 11th "III" III. H. up and blowing down all not have a look in the yards Cutts all all closed down at 6 30 and knocked off work Jules saw gramps breack weather cloudy with a few rain showers in this morn "H" fine weather 7 o'clock 6"- P- tacks fine weather a little air from the West, whale Made 98 barrells

Thri July 8th "III" washed off with Lye decks all cleaned up nothing doing today saw a Lot of gramps 7 o'clock 6"-Laying Ptacks weather fine and clear with a little air from the East set 5 Lower sails and Upsail today took in and set S-sct

Sat July 13th H" calm all day saw a Lot of gramps a Log and a full rigged ship reading "III. H" killed one big fish on P-tack all day unrecogat 12 set 7 o'clock 6"-Laying S-tacks weather fine clear calm a little from the S.E nothing doing today

Sun July 14th "H" raised a whale at 7-25 Lowered boats at 9-25. the Mate struck a large one got him while boats out raised a school N- and S boats went down and got one apiece out in the two small ones and started the works 8 oclock "E" boiling P- ~~on the~~ watch on deck boiling one large whale alongside fine weather with a few rain squalls in the A.M.

[redacted]

Mon July 15th "H" ~~started~~ turned too and started too cut in "H" all through cutting at 6-15 and worked on P back 7 oclock "E" boiling P watch on deck saw a large head to the N.W. weather fine and clear with a little air from the S. on P back Homeward bound fine weather

Tues July 16th "H" boiling all last night and today weather fine and clear with a gentle breeze from the S.W on P back fine weather

Wed July 17th "H" boiling all last night and today fine weather saw a large sperm ~~sperm~~ steering to the S.E. ~~steering~~ all all day no watch about today weather fine with a little breeze from the S.W. on P tack all day 7 o'clock E" hoisting P boat on deck

Thurs July 15th 111" doing all last night all through 4 o'clock in the 111" ~~through~~ Throwed the Jurk overboard everything full of oil washed off with salt water running all day with 5 lower sails and topsail weather cloudy with a strong breze from the W.S.W. on P tack heading W.W. by W. one cask of oil leaking capsized about 6 the last 7 o'clock E" running good rough P watch on deck no more Mast head up

Fri July 19th last night squally with wind and rain hoisted the jib took in the 111 sail blowing heavy from the S.W. 8 o'clock 111" better weather but rough bent on the F. topsail for a jib nothing doing on P tack rough blowing heavy more ship at 6 30 the sea rolls heavy 7 o'clock E" hove too Laying S. tack saw a large ship running to the S.E."

Sat July 20th 111" better weather on S. tack hove too all last night hoisting down side Light S pilot over board Lost P Light rough got aboard under W boat firing the jib away on S tack rough cloudy and blows heavy from the N.W. vessell heading N ½ W. on S tack

Sun July 21st running Last night on P tack with a strong breze from the N.W. firing the fib all though with the fib and fend it on a Strong breze from the N.W cloudy

Mon July 22d W.W running all Last night N.W. by N. strong breze rough fired the (B) light put grumit in for a fib running all day with everything 5 lower sail and topsail reefs wind N.W. N.W by cloudy and ~~rough~~ rough on P tack

Tues July 23d W.W nothing doing today weather cloudy down breze from the N.W. with heading N.W. by W. on P tack

Wed July 24th W.W reved the topsail back down W.W. to reefs and set up topmast riggin Male strucks a porpaise weather cloudy on S tack heading wind

Thurs July 25th AM squareing down rattlins saw a Sail nothing more doing weather fine with a good breze from the SE squared by from last night heading NW by W and S Luck

Wed July 26th calm this PM noon a fair breze this AM noon from the W. SW. heading NW by W squaring rattlins scraped masts and oiled them nothing more doing weather fine and Black with a fair breze from the West saw two Sail to the South of us

Sat July 21st AM a good breze from the SW saw a barque and two fishermen went aboard and got some fish weather fine and smokey with a good breze from the SW

Sun July 29th AM raining a PM noon sighted Land Northerly at 10 clock good breze AM saw a lot of schr rwards fishers at 5 clock PM of Newfoundland